SECTION 4 – GARDEN AND ALLOTMENT HOLDERS COLLECTIONS

Class: 4.1

A selection of four items of garden or allotment produce, e.g. fruit, flowers, herbs, vegetables etc., grown in the Exhibitor's garden or allotment and presented in suitable quantities. The items will be judged for quality and presentation and, as far as possible the degree of difficulty of cultivation will be taken into account.

The Sir Frank and Lady Small Cup for best exhibit in Class 4.1.
Not awarded

Class: 4.2

A bunch of mixed flowers, wild or cultivated, from your own garden. You may include foliage. Please present your flowers in a suitable vessel, jug, vase etc. as these will NOT be provided. The mixture of flowers will be judged for quality and general health. This class is a replacement for the Floral Art section and exhibits are not judged on the basis of artistic merit: they may be completely relaxed and informal in style.

Kenneth Smith Cup for the best exhibit in class 4.2.
